INFLUENZA 2025 SEASON

ORDER FROM YOUR VACCINE SPECIALIST

It's time to start preparing for the 2025 flu season. Early ordering is essential to avoid shortages and ensure that your patients have access to vaccines when they need them most.

In 2024, we began supplying influenza vaccines as early as February, helping our customers stay well-prepared. Our team is ready to provide the same support for the upcoming season. By securing your vaccine supply before the season starts, you'll benefit from:

- Priority stock allocation and delivery
- Timely delivery tailored to your needs
- Reliable and consistent supply

For the past five years, Team Medical has fulfilled 100% of pre-season orders, offering a proven track record of reliability. We also participate in state-based vaccination reimbursement programs, providing added value to our customers.

With over 30 years of experience, we understand the requirements for a successful flu season. Secure your stock with the team you can trust.

For any questions or assistance, please contact your Account Manager or our Customer Service Team. We're here to help Team Medical is your trusted flu vaccine supplier.
